

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1921.

Are you keeping up with Sol Metzger's sporting feature, "Football Facts Worth Knowing?" If there are any points about the game that you are not well grounded on, he can answer them in The Times.

NAVY'S QUEST FOR EASTERN TITLE SUPERSEDES INTEREST IN ARMY CONTEST.

WASHINGTON TIMES SPORTS

By TAD

(Copyright, 1921, by International News Service.)

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1921.

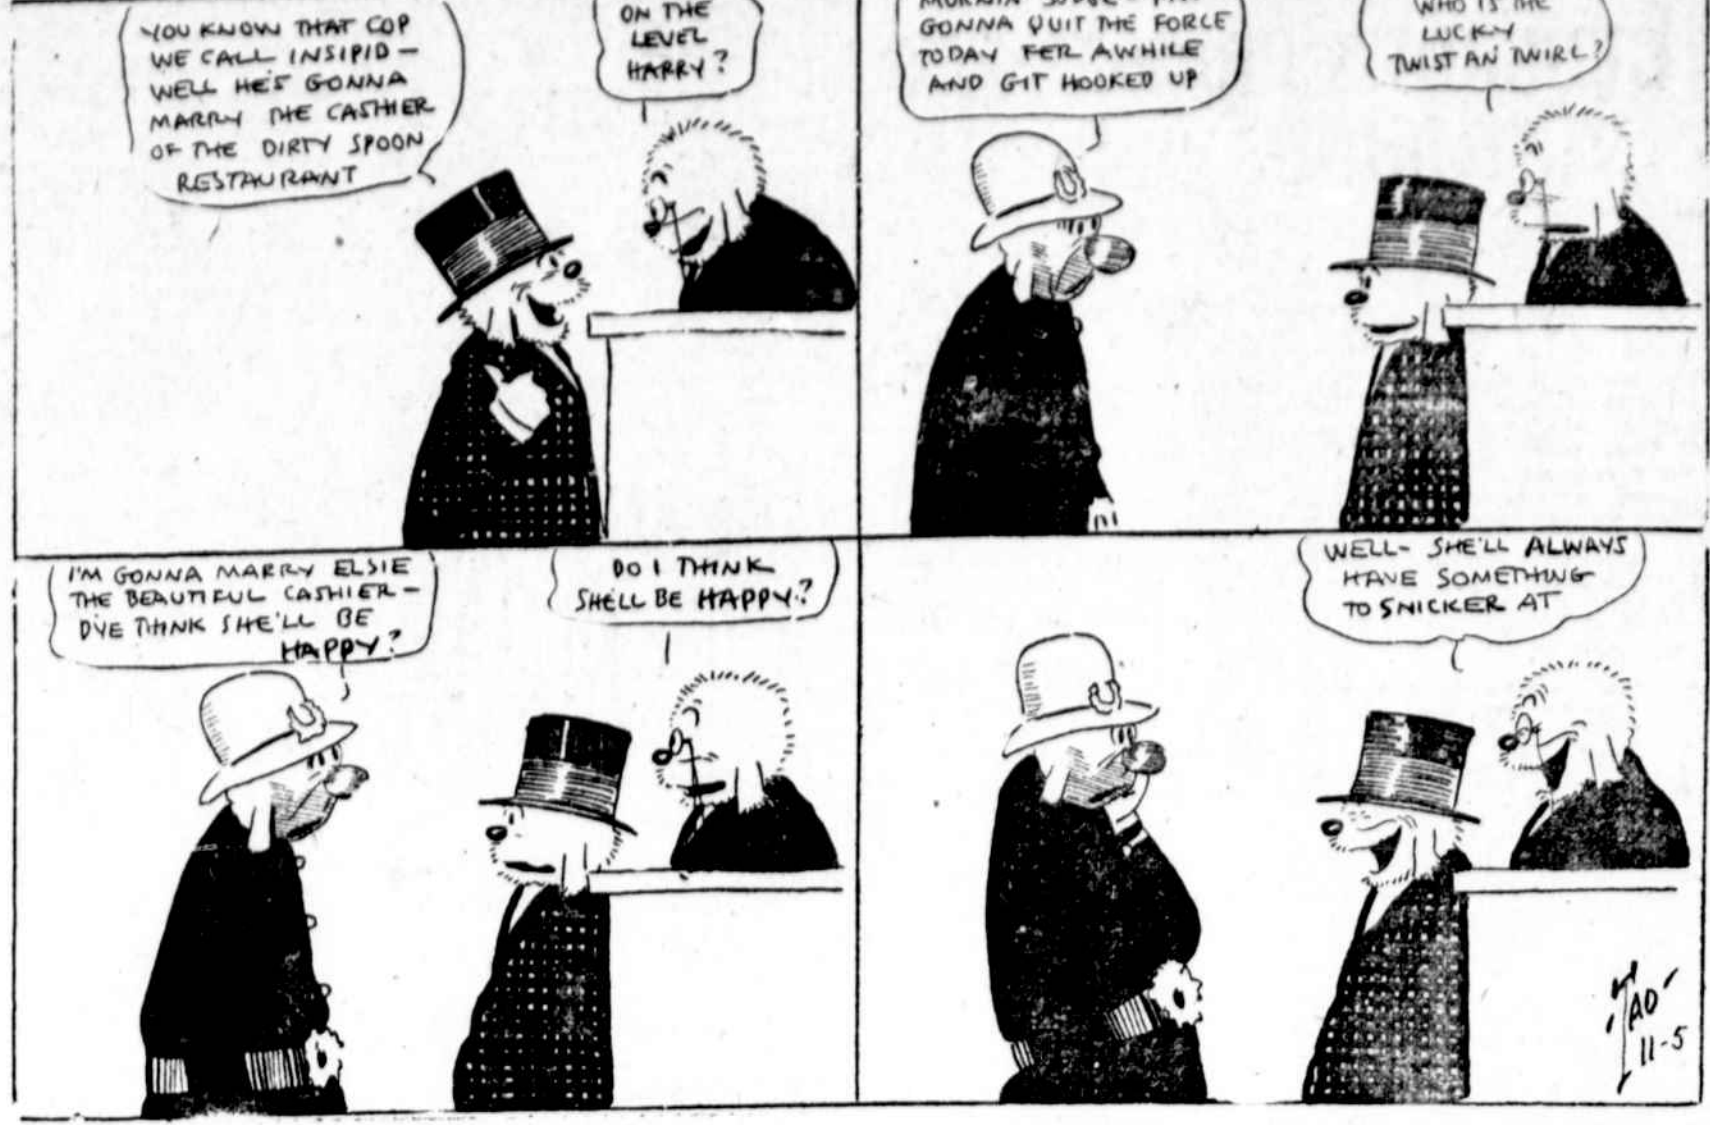

Bryan Morse has been The Times' scholastic and collegiate athletic chronologer for years. Every player and spectator knows he can be depended upon to write the most readable story of their favorite sport.

Judge Rummy

Indoor Sports

The Above Cartoon in Animated Form Produced by International Film Service and Distributed by Goldwyn.

The Above Cartoon in Animated Form Produced by International Film Service and Distributed by Goldwyn.

BATTLE WITH PENN STATE LOOKS FIGGER TO NAVY THAN GAME WITH ARMY

By HUGH R. RILEY.

ANNAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Interest in the Naval Academy in next Saturday's game at Philadelphia between the teams of that institution and Pennsylvania State is hardly exceeded by that which precedes the annual game against the Military Academy. Indeed, the big service contest, which takes place two weeks later, is, for the time, overshadowed by the game to be played in Philadelphia.

Naval people see in this game an opportunity of realizing the great ambition of the service in an athletic way—that of winning a leading place in the great college game. For years the Naval Academy has been steadily forging to the front in sports in general, and no institution has taken first place in so many branches. It is realized, however, that football affords the real test in the minds of this year's followers, and for the first time in its history the Navy has a chance to win the standing at the top.

The victor next Saturday, assuming that it will lose none of the games still to be played, is very likely to be accorded the highest honors by the experts, according to the opinion here. Yale may contest the honor should it defeat both Princeton and Harvard, but will be eliminated if it loses either game.

Cornell, Lafayette and Centre have hardly gone through a schedule of sufficient testing capacity to claim the honors against either the Naval Academy or Penn State.

Surprised by Bucknell. The Navy team and its friends were surprised to some extent by the work of Bucknell on Saturday and the fact that the Midshipmen were able to score but a single touchdown. However, Bucknell played an exceedingly strong game, and the Navy is fortunate to maintain its position as the only team in the East against which there has been no score.

The visitors had evidently prepared most carefully for this game, and the team was at the acme of its strength. It has extraordinary backs in Bowser and Kopp and no weakness developed in any department. As it played on Saturday it must be regarded as one of the best teams in the East.

It is felt here that the close game was a very good thing for the naval team. It defeated Princeton with comparative ease, and had little trouble with any of its other opponents, and there was a danger of the development of overconfidence. This was checked by the very great difficulty which was encountered in defeating Bucknell Saturday. It is realized that State is probably considerably stronger than Bucknell, though much success in its remaining game is forecast for the latter team, and that every effort must be made to win. To that end, the practice of the week will be very painstaking and strenuous.

Navy Missed King. The Navy missed the services on Saturday of King and Taylor, right tackle and right end, respectively. It is thought that both will be available against Penn State. King injured his leg in the Bethany game and has been nursing it since. It has made satisfactory progress, but it is still by no means certain that he can start Saturday. It is sure that no great chance of losing for the Army contest will be taken. In the meantime, there is a very capable substitute in the person of Wiedner.

Taylor, for two years a substitute back and a very fast and powerful one, found his true mission this season as an end, his work in that department being one of the most gratifying incidents of the season. He was

PIMLICO RACES BALTIMORE

Nov. 1-14 Inc. First Race, 1:45 P. M. Admission, Inc. Tax, $1.65
Frequent trains via W. & A. Electric Line. Special train (B. & O. R. R.) from Union Station, 11:45 a. m.

LOANS HORNING DIAMONDS, WATCHES, JEWELRY

South End of Highway Bridge

PHIL FILBERT SEES BIG WEEK FOR LOCAL LADS

Surveys Football Menu Over Seven-Day Period and Then Goes Quite Nutty.

"This is the week," said Phil Filbert, the funny fellow who fearlessly follows football.

"In the first place, the Tech High School and the Eastern High School lads will give a pretty fair exhibition of a real high school football game tomorrow afternoon in the Central stadium.

"On Friday afternoon Central will endeavor to stop George F. Green's Western High eleven, and thereby gain the championship. The battle will be well worth watching.

"On the self-same afternoon George Washington and Gallaudet will mix it up at American League Park, and I expect there will be considerable action in this engagement.

"Saturday afternoon the well-known Maryland University-Catholic University engagement will draw quite a few of us football nuts at the American League Park. The College Park freshmen play Tech in the morning.

"Of course, if I could get out of town I'd follow either the Hilltoppers in their engagement at Atlanta or I'd horn in to watch the Navy-Penn State game with Lou Dougher at Philadelphia.

And don't think I'm going to overlook that Knickerbocker-Mohawk engagement, which will be played at Union League Park next Sunday afternoon. I can choose between that game and the Syracuse-Washington pro battle at the league yard.

"O, yes, its going to be a real football week," says Phil Filbert, the funny fellow who fearlessly follows football.

Play Tie Game. Heavily outweighed, the Lexington A. C. football team yesterday battled the Arab A. C. to a 6-to-0 tie.

The all-around play of G. Perkins, Lexington quarter, featured the game. The Lexingtons have yet to be defeated this season in the 120-pound class.

By JACK VEIOCK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Three more weeks and the 1921 football season will be a thing of history.

But what a season it has been! Fraught with upsets all along the line, filled with thrilling feats by individual stars and productive of some of the greatest struggles seen on the line-lines for many a year, this season bears the stamp of success.

Monster crowds—bigger by thousands than the crowds of former years in most instances—have turned out to witness the real classics. Yet there are games still to be played that will lure still greater throngs to the sidelines.

Championships in the East, West and South still remain undecided. There have been so many good eleven making sturdy bids for the honors that sectional titles cannot be settled for two weeks to come.

This is Big Week.

The schedule this week will have an important bearing in this respect, especially in the East.

Fresh from its victory over Harvard, the Princeton Tiger will swoop down on Yale next Saturday at New Haven, bent on cleaning up the championship of the big three. Princeton has beaten Yale two years in succession, having won in 1919 and 1920. Once before in 1898 and 1899 the sons of Nassau won two straight games. Yale has always been able to break up Princeton's success after two victories. Can she do it again? The question will be answered Saturday in Yale's great bowl, and there will be 77,000 frantic football fans on hand to watch the struggle.

Navy Plays Penn State.

Navy also has a tough assignment this week. The middies are scheduled to take on Penn State at Franklin

SHE'S SOME JUMPER

FOOTBALL FACTS

Worth Knowing

By Sol Metzger

Q.—What is the penalty if only six men of the offensive team are on the line of scrimmage when the ball is put in play?

A.—Five yards' loss.

Q.—When is a player on the line of scrimmage?

A.—When he has both hands or both feet or one hand and the opposite foot up to or within one foot of the line.

Q.—May players on the line of scrimmage lock legs?

A.—Not unless they are one of the two men standing on either side of and next to the snapper back. These two men, commonly known as guards, may lock legs with the snapper back.

Q.—May any player on the line of scrimmage act as snapper back?

A.—Yes.

Q.—If a backfield man goes into the line of scrimmage may he stand as he likes?

A.—He may, providing he conforms to the rule regarding position of his hands and feet.

LIBERTY CUP TOURNEY GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

Play will start today in the golf tournament for the Liberty cup over the Chevy Chase course. The event will be a handicap one, with all matches to be at eighteen holes. The first round will be run off today, and one round on each succeeding day until Thursday, when the semi-finals will be staged in the mornings and the finals in the afternoon.

Gunsners Beaten. The Knickerbocker aggregation triumphed over the Seaman Gunner eleven on the Knicks' field yesterday afternoon, 20 to 6. Although the boys were hotly contested, the Knickerbockers completely outplayed the Seaman Gunners in every department of the game.

JORDAN ELEVEN TAKES MEASURE OF NORFOLK PROS

Black and White Romps Home With 61 to 0 Victory in Sunday Game.

Norfolk presented weak opposition to the Washington pros yesterday at American League Park and the Black and White eleven romped in an easy winner by the score of 61 to 0. Fans were immensely satisfied with the work of the locals, especially appreciating the great exhibition of broken field running by Harry Robb, the former Penn State quarterback.

Before the game was far gone Robb made it look like a birthday celebration. He was the hero properly and shined highly above the rest of the players with his scoring of five touchdowns. Two pretty runs resulting in scores and another which was scratched off the records on account of off-side play on the part of W. Turner, were the features of the day.

He made a specialty of starting from the middle of the field on his jaunts toward goal, and twice he negotiated distances of over fifty yards. The score for which he failed to receive official credit was when he caught a punt on his forty-five yard line and raced through a broken field to the goal line. In scoring from the fifty-yard line in the third quarter, after intercepting a forward which was scratched off the records on account of off-side play on the part of W. Turner, were the features of the day.

Johnny Blair, right halfback, although not figuring in the actual scoring often contributed fine bits of offensive work which put the ball within scoring distance. On end-runs he appeared to be greatly adept, as he sidestepped and twisted past tacklers. He made a beautiful attempt at a field goal in the initial period from the forty-six yard line, but the piskin failed to go over the crossbar by only two feet. Wabson kicked six successive goals from touchdowns in the first half before he was replaced by Dowerick. Norfolk failed to register a point by rushing the ball through the Washington line, which was in fine form.

SOUTHERN A. C. DEFEATS MOHAWK JUNIOR TEAM

For the first time in two years the Mohawk junior football team is experiencing that soggy feeling of being licked. The snappy young Southern A. C. eleven, of southwest, which had knocked off the Dreadnaughts, of Alexandria, a week before, scalped the Junior Indians at Seventeenth and D streets south-west yesterday, 7 to 2.

Although marred by fumbling by both teams, the game was bitterly fought from whistle to whistle, the Mohawks scoring in the second quarter when the Southern right half was caught behind his own goal line. Gaines was pushed over for Southern's touchdown in the third period, after a forward pass attack had placed the piskin at the Mohawk six-yard line. W. Snow kicked goal.

Seeks Floor Games.

Manager Raymond Switzer, of the 110-pound Liberty Athletic club basketball team, would like to receive challenges from other teams of this weight, and can be reached at 230 Burs street northwest.

Wins Fifth Game.

Friendship A. C. won its fifth, straight game yesterday when he beat the Yvonnakes, 42 to 7, in a one-sided game in the 125-pound class.

Jinx Team Wins.

After A. C. defeated the Brookland eleven, 6 to 0, in a hard-fought grid game.

HATCHETITE COACH COMES OUT WITH ELEVEN AGAIN

By BRYAN MORSE.

One week ago today Bill Quigley, coach of the George Washington University football team, walked off the gridiron and drove up to the G. W. U. Hospital. One hour after he left the football field Dr. Daniel L. Borden, wielding a mean scalpel, neatly and deftly removed an appendix from Quigley's interior, adding it to an already large collection. The operation, according to the "profess," was a complete success. On Saturday just as the Hatchettites were going on the field at Chestertown, Md., a wire from Quigley was read to the team to the effect that he looked forward with pleasure to seeing the men on Monday.

Today, one week after the operation, Bill Quigley, minus some of his interior furnishings, walks on to the field again to coach the Hatchettite eleven for its remaining games with Gallaudet College and Catholic University.

The occurrence is a pretty good advertisement for the sawbones, the coach, and the football team, and shows just what can be done in these latter days when it comes to determination and a desire to keep a team going at top speed.

Under Quigley this year the Hatchettites have developed rapidly. To date George Washington has won three games, lost two, and tied one, a considerably better performance than has ever been recorded by a George Washington eleven in past years.

Scores 123 Points.

The team has scored 123 points, against 63 for the opposition, and while it is in a winning stride will be worked forward for the Gallaudet game on Friday and the Catholic University contest on Thanksgiving Day.

The Hatchettites are particularly fortunate in getting Quigley, who has produced first-class results, under somewhat trying circumstances. Denied a practice field the Hatchettites are forced to use Potomac Park, where rival teams have what might be termed a soft boiled clench in scouting their plays.

The new coach has produced gratifying results and the Hatchettites are looking forward to a most successful season with the idea of expanding and looking somewhat ahead to something more pretentious next season.

Team Improved. Over last year's performances the George Washington outfit has greatly improved. Practices have been more regular and a longer time has been spent on the team. The material, developed last year, with notable additions this year, has come forward rapidly to the point where the team is capable of giving a first rate account of itself.

The Hatchettites know they will have two stiff engagements before the season is called off. Gallaudet, played Friday, is always a tough customer. In any sport, Catholic University, the main objective of the Hatchettites season, is showing considerable improvement over its early season performance.

Thanksgiving Day afternoon the G. W. U. followers believe they are going to see the "battle of the country," which means that two evenly matched elevens will take the field to furnish a first-class engagement.

JOHNNY BUFF TO DEFEND BANTAMWEIGHT CROWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Johnny Buff, bantamweight champion and holder of the American flyweight belt, as well, will defend his bantam title Thursday night against Jack Sharkey. The little fellows are scheduled to go fifteen rounds at Madison Square Garden.

Dreadnaughts Ahead.

The Dreadnaught eleven handed the Truxton Club footballers a drubbing at Alexandria yesterday, running up a 30-to-0 count. The Virginians exhibited a powerful running attack, skirting the ends with good interference for long gains repeatedly.

Mercury Wins.

The Mercury A. C. took the Naval Hospital team into camp yesterday to the tune of 16 to 0. The result was never in doubt as the sailors made but four first downs during the entire battle.

Kenilworth Wins.

The Kenilworth football team defeated the Benning A. C. by the score of 19 to 0 in a hard-fought battle. Hudson started.

Hardy Tiger Regulars In Fine Fettle After Ordeal

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Princeton's eleven varsity men, who performed a unique feat Saturday by going through the Harvard game without a substitution, were fit and in fighting trim today when Coach Bill Roper called the roll.

Though flushed with victory, the Tigers are not overconfident and are looking forward to a terrific tussle with Yale.

EVERY TICKET FOR FOOTBALL CLASSIC SOLD

Yale-Princeton Clash to Be Seen By 78,000, Eli Manager Estimates.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 7.—Every ticket for the Yale-Princeton game has been sold. H. F. Woodcock, general manager of Yale's ticket department, announced today. He expects 78,000 to witness the game.

Yale's first string players are in fine condition, and were ready to start working today for the coming battle with the Tigers. Coach Jones did not order his men to do any heavy work today, however.

Seven members of the Yale varsity were at Princeton Saturday. Needless to say they came back with plenty of pointers for the Blue.

STANTON A. C. HOLDS OWN AGAINST SURRATTSVILLE

Stanton A. C. and the Southern Maryland team, representing Surrattsville, Md., battled to a scoreless tie on the latter's gridiron. Four times the Stantons had the ball on the "Marylanders' 10-yard line, but were held for downs through the line defensive work of Childs.

Nolan, Murtaugh, and Murphy, in the line, and Rittender and Walcott in the backfield, were Stanton's best players. Childs, Noyes, and Campbell were Southern Maryland's stars.

90c per sealed can, 2 1/2 lbs. net

SYMO MALTED SYRUP is a scientific product for making delicious non-alcoholic beverages. SYMO is high in malt sugar and dextrins, two ingredients which are beneficial to the human body. Guaranteed 100 per cent pure, free from corn syrup or other adulterants. Contains no alcohol.

SYMO MALTED SYRUP is for sale at leading hardware stores, grocers and drug-gists. If your dealer does not carry SYMO, send us your name.

Out-of-stock orders will be sent promptly when accompanied by money order or check.

Washington Candy Supply Co.

SUCCESSORS TO O'BRIEN & CO. 306 NEW JERSEY AVE. N. W. Phone Lincoln 4267 Washington, D. C.